What Makes This Offer Amazing?

By partnering with ADAMftd, you're not just promoting a product—you're providing your network with access to the most comprehensive global trade insights and tools. These features empower businesses to save time, reduce costs, and gain a significant edge in international trade.

Trade Data from Countries That No One Else Covers

Gain exclusive access to billions of import and export records from 79 countries, including regions not covered by other platforms. Whether you're an importer, exporter, or supply chain manager, these insights help uncover new trading opportunities, identify untapped markets, and track competitor activity.

Real-Time Sanctions Compliance

Access sanctions records from 300+ official government sources in real time, helping you stay compliant and mitigate risks. Ensure your business and its partners adhere to global regulations by monitoring key compliance data and avoiding sanctioned entities.

Market Trends, Pricing, and Supply Chain Insights

Stay ahead with critical market intelligence, including pricing trends, demand forecasts, and supply chain disruptions. Whether you're planning your next move or analyzing competitors, ADAMftd ensures you remain agile and competitive in an ever-changing market landscape.

Company Due Diligence

Explore a database of 257 million companies, featuring insights on registration status, beneficial ownership, negative media coverage, related entities, and connected individuals. This robust due diligence tool helps you minimize risks and make confident, secure business decisions.

GDPR-Compliant Contact Database

Connect with 120 million GDPR-compliant business contacts globally, segmented by industry, job title, location, and more. These contacts empower your sales and marketing efforts by ensuring your outreach is effective, targeted, and legally compliant.

Shipping, Port, and Vessel Monitoring

Get access to live vessel tracking, port analytics, and shipping routes. Monitor global shipments, track delays, and optimize your logistics planning with real-time insights into the movement of goods around the world.

When you recommend ADAMftd, you're equipping businesses with the ultimate trade intelligence platform. By solving their most pressing challenges and helping them uncover new opportunities, you also earn generous commissions and establish yourself as a leader in their success journey.
